

Peace and Security in West Africa: Indigeneity, Politics, and the Local-Local Turn

Proposed Publisher: Bloomsbury Publishing

Editors:

1. Dr. Prince Duah Agyei (Tampere Peace Research Institute, Tampere University, Finland, and Centre for Alternative Politics & Security West Africa)
2. Dr. Muhammad Dan Suleiman (KFUPM, Saudi Arabia, and Curtin University, Australia)

Foreword: Prof. Kwesi Aning (KAIPTC, Ghana)

INTRODUCTION: (In)Security in West Africa: In Search of the Local-Local

Dr. Prince Duah Agyei and Dr. Muhammad Dan Suleiman

PART I: Foundations of Security: Interrogating Paradigms

1. Peace and Security in West Africa: Security Ramifications of the AES-ECOWAS Exit.
2. Foundations of Insecurity: The Limitations of the Liberal Peacebuilding Approach in West Africa.
3. Oral Tradition as Indigenous Conflict Resolution: New Insights from Women of Owu.
4. Limits of the Local Turn in Peacebuilding: Building a Hybrid Early Warning and Early Response System in Ethnopolitical Conflict in Nigeria.
5. Governance and insecurity nexus in West Africa. Resonating evidence from the Africa Integrity indicators.

PART II: Indigeneity and the Local-Local Turn

6. The local-local lens: A new way of thinking and practicing security (Dr. Muhammad Dan Suleiman and Dr. Prince Duah Agyei).
7. What did we do to bring this to ourselves? The nexus between Indigenous philosophy of agentic individual responsibility and peacebuilding.
8. Revisiting Tradition: Indigenous Approaches to Peacebuilding in West Africa.
9. Exploring Indigenous Mechanisms for Building Social Cohesion: The Case of Bawku Conflict in Northern Ghana.

PART III: Human Security, Politics and Power Dynamics

10. Economic, Political and Social Dimensions of National Security in Nigeria: Indigeneity, Politics, and Local Approaches.

11. Integrating the Civilian Joint Task Force into Counter-Insurgency Operations: A Strategic Framework for Combating Boko Haram Insurgency in North-Eastern Nigeria.
12. "The women are very useful but also dangerous": Patriarchal anxieties in women's grassroots peacebuilding in conflict-affected zones in Ghana.
13. Indigenous Youth Movements and the Remaking of Security in Post-Colonial West Africa.
14. Crossroads of Culture and Conflict: Almajiri, Militancy, and Nigeria's Security Failures.
15. The Impact of Neopatrimonialism on Human Security in West Africa: A case study of how neopatrimonial politics have undermined human security in Ghana.
16. Gender, Identity, and Power: analysing banditry and peacebuilding in Northwestern Nigeria.
17. Women and Security in traditional Igbo Society of South-Eastern Nigeria: A Study of Uchee in Ikwuano.
18. Contested Sovereignties and Hybrid Governance: Rethinking Security Paradigms in the Lake Chad

PART IV: Success Stories and Innovations

19. Counterterrorism through Artificial Intelligence (AI): Experiences and Perspectives for the Alliance of Sahel States (AES).
20. Indigenous Conflict Resolution Approaches in West Africa: Perspectives From Bel-Sho and Zarazong Communities Of Plateau State, Nigeria.
21. The Efficacy of Traditional Approaches to Community Conflict Resolution in Kwara State, Nigeria.
22. Precolonial African political checks and balances mechanisms: Indigenous political accountability in the Asante Kingdom and its lessons for modern West African governance.
23. Contributions, Challenges and Implications of Civilian Joint Task Force (CJTF) as Traditional Security Apparatus in the Fight against Terrorism in Northeast.

CONCLUSION: Looking Back, Looking Ahead

Dr. Prince Duah Agyei and Dr. Muhammad Dan Suleiman

Submission details

- Draft Full Chapter Deadline: May 31, 2025
- Submission to Publisher: November 30, 2025
- Length: 6,000-8,000 words (including refs)

Please send draft chapter and inquiries to Dr Prince Agyei Duah at prince.agyei@tuni.fi